Overview

Pursuant to 14 Del. Code, Chapter 12, a three-tiered licensure system has been established for Delaware educators. In accordance with statute, regulations governing the educator licensure system are promulgated by the Professional Standards Board and approved by the State Board of Education. The Department of Education is responsible for the implementation of the licensure system. A Continuing License will be issued to all Delaware educators who have successfully completed the requirements within the three (3) year Initial Licensure period, or who hold a Professional Status Certificate. A Continuing License is valid for five (5) years and is renewable.

The purpose of this Guideline is to provide educators with accurate assistance for renewing their Continuing License.

The State of Delaware requires every educator to complete ninety (90) clock hours of professional development over the five (5) year renewal cycle of a Continuing License. For teachers, such activities will be aligned with the Delaware Professional Teaching Standards. For administrators, activities for renewal of the Continuing License will be aligned with the Delaware Administrator Standards. Specialists may select activities aligned with the Delaware Professional Teaching Standards, specialty organization national standards and, when available, specialist domains of the Delaware Performance Appraisal System (DPAS II).

The ninety (90) clock hours accumulated for renewal of the Continuing License may be earned through a variety of professional development activities which enhance the educator's work with his/her students, school, district, or profession and which reflect the state performance standards for educators. A wide variety of options are available for these activities. These options are explained within the CHARTS on pages 9-15 of this Guideline.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What is a Continuing License?

A Continuing License is part of Delaware’s three-tiered licensure system which consists of Initial Licenses, Continuing Licenses and Advanced Licenses. A majority of Delaware educators hold Continuing Licenses. In addition to a License, Delaware educators must also apply for and be issued a Standard Certificate upon meeting the specific requirements for that Certificate.

2. When will an educator receive their original Continuing License?

An educator will receive their original Continuing License upon successful completion of the requirements under the Initial License. The district or charter school will submit the necessary documentation if the educator is employed. An educator may also receive their original Continuing License when their Professional Status Certificate expires and they have applied for their original Continuing License. A Continuing License is valid for five (5) years, at which time it must be renewed in order to continue employment in a Delaware public school.

3. What is the Professional Standards Board’s definition of professional development?

As quoted from DE Admin Code 1511 Issuance and Renewal of Continuing License: “Professional Development means a combination of focused, in-depth learning, practice, feedback, reflection, and expert support experiences designed to change participants’ attitudes, insights, and/or perspectives; and ultimately results in improved professional practice. Effective professional development programs include ample opportunities for knowledge acquisition, skill mastery, descriptive feedback, and refinement of practice in the work setting.”

4. What professional development experiences will count for the renewal of a Continuing License?

Multiple professional development options may be used for the renewal of a Continuing License. They are defined in the Renewal Options shown within the CHARTS on pages 9-15 of this Guideline. Experiences must enhance an educator’s knowledge/skills in their job or help them contribute to their school or profession. Professional development activities submitted for license renewal must be aligned with the Delaware Teaching Standards, the Delaware Administrator Standards or national specialist standards.

NOTE: Be sure to read the validity dates on page 8 for professional development options found in Charts One and Two.

5. How can an educator determine if the activity will be acceptable for credit?

Answering “yes” to the following questions can help determine its acceptance. Does the activity:

- meet the approved definition of professional development?
- enhance my knowledge/skills in my job?
- contribute to my school or profession?
- meet one of the renewal options?
- address one of the standards of my area of the profession?
- in limited instances, have the approval of my immediate supervisor?
- provide documentation of my participation?

6. What is the difference between a clock hour and a semester or quarter hour?

For the purpose of licensure renewal, a clock hour is the time spent by an educator participating in a professional development activity. Semester or quarter hours are accumulations of clock hours used by colleges, universities, and some professional development providers to document courses and related experiences completed by students. It is generally accepted that one semester hour is made up of fifteen (15) clock hours and one quarter hour is made up of ten (10) clock hours. Some Higher Education Institutions and professional development providers also offer courses and/or experiences which award continuing education unit (CEU) credits. A continuing education unit (CEU) is also made up of ten (10) clock hours. All experiences must be recorded as clock hours.

7. What does an educator need to do in preparation for documenting the renewal of their Continuing License?

An educator must provide evidence, as set forth in the Verification Section of the renewal options found within the CHARTS on pages 9-15 of this Guideline. As the educator completes appropriate activities, they should enter the Professional Development activities on the online form within DEEDS (Delaware Educator Data System) website at <https://deeds.doe.k12.de.us> . (See the renewal directions beginning on page 15.)

8. What are the deadlines for submitting the Application for Renewal of a Continuing License?

The school district or charter school may verify an educator’s professional development at any time, but each employing authority most likely has a policy for this process. Delaware educators will be notified six (6) months prior to their expiration date via a DEEDS-generated email, provided they have a current email address in the DEEDS My Profile. The Criminal Affirmation on DEEDS will not be available until ninety (90) days prior to the expiration date.

9. What can an educator check on in DEEDS?

An educator can check on the progress of their ongoing professional development entered into DEEDS by accessing <https://deeds.doe.k12.de.us> . Once the employing authority has verified and completed the renewal process, the list of the educator’s professional development will be hidden from view on DEEDS and the educator will shown a page on DEEDS that the district or charter school verifying process has been completed.

10. How does an educator apply for renewal of their Continuing License?

The educator will print the completed application from the DEEDS website <https://deeds.doe.k12.de.us> . The educator will then submit the completed application along with supporting documentation to the district or charter school Personnel Office. The educator is encouraged to make copies of their documentation and to make an appointment with the school district or charter school Personnel Office for the verification process.

11. When must activities be completed to count for renewal of a Continuing License?

Professional development activities must be completed within the five (5) year term of the license. Educators are encouraged to complete their professional development and have their employing authority verify the professional development and complete the process a minimum of six (6) months prior to the expiration date.

12. What happens if an educator changes assignments during the five-year term of their continuing license?

Educators who change assignments within the term of the license (i.e., teacher to administrator; special education teacher to elementary teacher, middle school math to middle school science teacher, etc.) must verify with their current school district or charter school Personnel Office that the activities presented for renewal of the license were relevant to the assignment held at the time the activities were taken.

13. May an educator use the same professional development experience for a salary increase and for renewal of their Continuing License?

Professional Development activities used for salary increases may be used for renewal of the Continuing License provided they fulfill all other requirements for renewal options.

14. How does an educator apply for an original Continuing License if they hold a previous Delaware Certificate?

An educator who previously held a valid Delaware Professional Status Certificate which has expired may be issued a Continuing License, valid for five (5) years, upon employment, application in DEEDS and evidence of previous Delaware certification. These educators are required to disclose their criminal conviction history and successfully complete in their first year of employment, a year of Mentoring required of educators on an Initial License.

15. What if an educator has an expired Continuing License and has been out of the profession for less than three (3) years?

An educator who holds a Continuing License which has expired and who has been out of the profession for less than three (3) years may be issued a Continuing License upon verification of ninety (90) clock hours of appropriate professional development taken within the last five (5) years. This educator must disclose their criminal conviction history, and within the first year of employment, successfully complete an approved mentoring program which focuses on current best practices in curriculum, instruction and assessment aligned to state and national standards

16. What if an educator has an expired Continuing License and has been out of the profession between three (3) and five (5) years?

An educator who holds a Continuing License which has expired and who has been out of the profession between three (3) and five (5) years may be issued a Continuing License upon verification of ninety (90) clock hours of appropriate professional development taken within the last five (5) years. This educator must disclose their criminal conviction history, and within the first year of employment, successfully complete a year of the mentoring program required of those educators on an Initial License, based on the educator's needs and experience.

17. What if an educator has an expired Delaware Continuing License or an expired license/certificate from another jurisdiction and has been out of the profession for more than five (5) years?

This educator is not eligible to receive or renew a Continuing License. This educator will need to apply for an Initial License and meet the Initial License requirements in effect at the time of application.

18. Can an experienced educator from another jurisdiction (state) apply for a Continuing License?

An educator who has completed three (3) or more years of successful teaching may be considered an experienced educator. This educator may apply for and receive an original Continuing License. This educator shall disclose their criminal conviction history, and within the first year of employment, successfully complete an approved mentoring program which focuses on current best practices in curriculum, instruction and assessment aligned to state and national standards.

19. Will an educator be notified about the upcoming expiration of their Continuing License?

If an educator has a current and valid email address registered in DEEDS, the educator will receive, six (6) months prior to the expiration date, an automated monthly email reminder to complete their professional development and complete the verification process at the school district or charter school. Once the school district or charter school has logged into DEEDS and has verified and completed the educator's application, these emails will cease. Ninety (90) days prior to the expiration date, the educator will be electronically reminded to log into DEEDS to complete the Criminal Affirmation.

20. How long will it take to process the application for renewal of a Continuing License?

DEEDS will process Continuing License applications in the early morning hours on the 28th of the month a Continuing License expires. If all is well with the verification, approval and Criminal Affirmation, DEEDS will automatically renew a Continuing License. The educator will then promptly receive an email from DEEDS with a new License attached. If an educator is currently employed, their school district or charter school Personnel Office will receive notification as well. For those educators who also have an Emergency Certificate, be aware that it will take several more days for the processing.

21. How can an educator access their new Continuing License?

Upon logging into DEEDS, <https://deeds.doe.k12.de.us/default.aspx>, under My Profile, the educator would select Print Credential, and their License will appear ready to print, complete with current certifications, dates of validity, the Secretary of Education's signature, the State Board of Education seal and a State of Delaware watermark!

22. May an educator receive an 'extension' on their Continuing License?

An educator should see their school district or charter school Personnel Director if they feel that Exigent Circumstances or an Authorized Leave of Absence has prevented them from completing professional development activities and/or completing the renewal process on DEEDS. (see <http://regulations.delaware.gov/AdminCode/title14/1500/1511.shtml#TopOfPage> for definitions and application of these.)

23. Who does an educator call or contact if they need help in completing the Application for Renewal of Continuing License or in documenting their professional development experiences for renewal?

Questions about the application process and documentation should be directed to their school district or charter school Personnel Office.

NOTE It is critical that all educators maintain a current email within DEEDS, or the processing and/or notifications become moot.
